ALWAYS FOR FREE COINAGE.

Currency Planks of the Gila County Republicans.

1892
"We favor the free coinage of American silver, believing that it will increase the circulating medium and tend to relieve the present stringency of the money market, as well as to place silver in its proper place as coin."

1894
"The Republican party of Gila county reaffirms its belief in, and adherence to the principles of the Republican party, endorses the platform adopted by the Republican convention held at Tucson on Sept. 12, 1894, and more particularly the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of the action of other countries."

1896
"We are unalterably opposed to the attempt to discriminate in favor of the moneyed class, by establishing gold as the monetary standard of the United States, and we declare it as our opinion that the prosperity of the country and the welfare of the people are dependent upon the restoration of true bimetalism, the free coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the concurrence of England or any other European nation they having repeatedly refused their assent to an international agreement."

REPUBLICAN CLAIMS NOT WELL SUPPORTED.

An Omaha, Neb. dispatch to the Chicago Record, says: A certain Omaha firm has just received a letter from the Abner L. Backus & Sons Co., grain and seed merchants at Toledo, O., to the effect that that firm was dubious about taking business for fear that Bryan would be elected. The Omaha firm promptly replied that there was no danger of Bryan being elected, for even Nebraska would go for McKinley. The following letter was received by them in reply:

"Dear Sir: You make us feel better at the political situation but we have had three polls here in a 4,000 majority district, and dare not announce the result. We have 10,000 idle men in our city alone who are anxious for a change, and we fear the labor vote is solid against McKinley. We claim Ohio by 150,000 to 300,000, but our wisest men are not doing anything but claim. Why, every straw we can obtain from labor unions here are about 278 Bryan, 4 McKinley, and in his own state. As soon as the new corn moves we trust we can work some from you. Yours truly, The Abner L. Backus & Sons Co."

LABOR AND POLITICS.

Address by the President of the Western Federation of Miners.

Edward Boyce, president of the Western Federation of Miners, delivered an address on Wednesday night from the band stand, to a very large and attentive gathering. He was introduced by Walter Stanley, president of the local union. The subject announced was, "Virtues of Organized Labor." The speaker did not stick to the text very closely, however, but talked at some length of the deplorable condition of the laboring class throughout the United States, and declared that the remedy for present evils lay in the ballot box, and he counseled harmony and co-operation amongst the toilers and producers of the land that they might have a controlling voice in legislation and the administration of the government. The object of organization of labor he said was protection against the injustice and greed of capital, but did not necessarily contemplate strikes as a remedy. In fact he was opposed to strikes and lockouts which always resulted disastrously to labor. Such remedies were a last resort, to be employed only after arbitration had failed. Mr. Boyce declared himself a Populist, and concluded with a peroration on William Jennings Bryan.

The speech was well received and elicited hearty applause. At its conclusion many repaired to the new building opposite F. W. Westmeyer's, where dancing was inaugurated. The attendance was large, in fact too great for the capacity of the room. It was, nevertheless, a very enjoyable affair, for which the Globe Miner's Union is to be congratulated.

A COMPLETE SUCCESS

One of the New Furnaces of the Old Dominion Copper Co. Blown in.

AN INCREASED PRODUCTION OF COPPER ASSURED.

An event of considerable interest, having an important bearing upon the copper industry of the camp, was the starting of the first of the 100-ton furnaces, recently received by the Old Dominion Copper Mining & Smelting Company, from the builders, Wm. B. Pollock & Co., of Youngstown, Ohio.

The new furnace was fired last Saturday morning, and two hours afterward we visited the smelter and were gratified to find operations proceeding as smoothly as though it was an old story.

The furnace is 34x108 inches inside the ture line, steel sectional jacketed, two end and two side jackets so flanged that the rivet seams are all outside of the furnace.

The blast is furnished by two No. 5 Root blowers through a 23 inch blast pipe entering the furnace from the large bustle pipe, through 14 side tuyeres (seven on each side) and one end tuyere.

The large crucible rests on a foundation of slag brick of substantial appearance, the first slag brick, we believe, to be used in this locality, and which, from time to time, will be employed, where practicable, in construction work around the works.

The slag is arranged to flow continuously through a home made jacketed slag well outside of the tap hole, which latter is a bronze water jacket slag tap; later on a water jacket slag tap will replace the water pipe, brick and clay arrangement now used. The slag overflows from the settler into a launder, or trough, lined with slag brick, striking a jet of cold water, dispersing the slag into granules which are swept down the flume and out to the creek bottom by the overflowing water from the jackets.

The continuous slag flow, and certainly the granulation of the slag, are new and novel features to many persons here, and contribute to the ease and celerity in handling the furnace economically. Although the regular working capacity of the new furnace has not yet been reached, nevertheless it is turning out copper very fast.

A duplicate of the furnace now in operation is on the ground, and the work of erecting it will begin within a few days, to proceed in a more leisurely manner than on the first one. Some slight modifications will be made, as results from the present furnace may indicate as desirable, the management being desirous to obtain the best results possible.

In the meanwhile the other vacant space will be occupied by one of the old jackets, which will be blown in as soon as the repairs are made, and the necessity for which was the cause of the shutdown for a day preceding the starting of the new one.

At the mine the stopes are looking well, and new men have been added to the force as occasion demanded, to prepare for the increased output that will ensue after a few months.

Among the unusual and new features is the use of anthracite coal for reducing action in the furnace, of which about 25 per cent. to the coke is used. The coal comes from New Mexico and the quality is very good.

A disagreeable duty of the management is the necessity of refusing work to so many applicants. A large number of men seeking work, have been induced to come to Globe by exaggerated reports of increased operations by our mining companies. This is to be regretted as the supply of labor in this district is in excess of present requirements. Globe is assured of growing prosperity and good times, but the improvement will be gradual and somewhat slow.

WOODMAN OF THE WORLD.

The Globe Lodge No. 12, Woodmen of the World, was organized last Thursday evening, by Mr. Frank Hollingshead, deputy council commander for Arizona. Twenty-one members were initiated and the names of seventeen other charter members have been enrolled, and a further increase is confidently expected, during Mr. Hollingshead's stay. All who come in before the charter is closed will be received as charter members.

The officers elected are: Council Commander, Jas. F. Patton; Advisor, Lieutenant, B. C. Fox; Banker, W. O. Kellner; Clerk, J. H. Morehead; Physician, B. G. Fox; Escort, J. Burns; Inside Watchman, D. C. McDill; Sentry, M. Clark; Managers, T. Shields Collins, Denis Murphy, Jos. H. Hamill.

The Woodmen of the World although only started six years ago, is already one of the strongest and most popular fraternal beneficiary orders in the United States, with a present membership of 70,000. The first Arizona lodge was organized at Williams in July 1895, and there are now twelve strong lodges in the Territory.

TO MINE OWNERS.

The Globe Commercial Club, desiring to draw attention to the extensive mineral resources of the district, and to make available information regarding the developed mines, and the district in general; will, during the ensuing year, publish a preliminary report.

Mine owners having property awaiting further development, or who may desire to have their mines listed, are requested to apply for blanks and further information.

The Club will do all in its power to aid and encourage all branches of mining in this district, and requests co-operation on the part of mine owners.

Also, in the several precincts of each county one Justice of the Peace and one Constable, and in such precincts as are entitled to two Justices of the Peace and two Constables, that number shall be elected. And I do hereby offer a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any of the provisions of Title 4, Part 1, of the Penal Code.
